

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20570

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Wednesday, March 5, 1997

R-2203
202/273-1991

PATRICIA TIMMINS IS NAMED REGIONAL ATTY.
IN NLRB'S WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Fred Feinstein today announced the appointment of Patricia L. Timmins as Regional Attorney in the agency's Winston-Salem, North Carolina Regional Office (Region 11). She had been serving as Supervisory Attorney and Acting Regional Attorney in that office for almost three years. As Regional Attorney, Ms. Timmins will assist Regional Director Willie Clark in supervising casehandling activities in North Carolina and South Carolina.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It investigates and remedies unfair labor practices and conducts secret ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation.

In making the announcement, General Counsel Feinstein stated:

"Patricia Timmins is a gifted attorney and manager and has a well deserved reputation for excellence in agency law and procedures. The agency is very fortunate to have Patricia Timmins serving in this important position."

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Ms. Timmins attended Barat College in Lake Forest, Illinois. She graduated from Boston University in 1970 with a B.A. degree in Political Science.

Ms Timmins received a J D degree from the Suffolk University Law School, Boston, Massachusetts in 1973.

During the summer of 1972, Ms. Timmins attended the University of Exeter in Exeter, England as part of a joint program with the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia, where she took her first labor law courses and began her love of labor law. Upon returning to the United States in the summer of 1973, Ms. Timmins immediately applied for a position with the agency's Boston Regional Office, where she began her NLRB career in September 1973. Ms Timmins served as a trial attorney in the agency's Boston, Hartford, and Winston-Salem Regional Offices; a trial specialist in the Boston and Winston-Salem Regional Offices, and a Supervisory Attorney in the Puerto Rico and Winston-Salem Regional Offices. During her varied career with the agency, she also served as Senior Counsel to Board Member Marshall Babson.

Ms. Timmins lives in Winston-Salem and enjoys the company of her extended family, friends, and cats. Her hobbies include gourmet cooking, traveling, rock-hounding, and reading.

###